Visit our Erectile Dysfunction Clinic. You will still have a consultation with a doctor, who will make sure you are suitable to take Viagra, but this will take the form of an online questionnaire and possibly follow-up online messages, rather than a face-to-face discussion. To get a prescription for Viagra or any other erectile dysfunction medicine, you should visit your GP. Alternatively, you can order Viagra online from an accredited online doctor service, and a doctor will assess your suitability for the medicine via an online questionnaire. Selecting an internet pharmacy on this basis makes sure that you will only receive a prescription for Viagra if it is compatible with any other health problems, and that the pills you receive are genuine. However, it is not always obvious how and where you can buy Viagra, especially as erectile dysfunction and how to obtain treatment for the condition are unlikely to be topics you discuss with your mates down the pub. However, any pharmacy that is operating legally and is fully registered should be happy to answer your questions about its registration and how it works. Although you are probably happy to visit your doctor to discuss most health issues, when it comes to erectile dysfunction you may not feel comfortable having a face-to-face consultation. Erectile dysfunction is a very common condition, one which affects most men at some point in their lives. How to support your partner with ED Confused about contraception? The most popular treatment for it is Viagra, which means there are an awful lot of men out there trying to buy the medicine. Because it is not associated with a particular brand, sildenafil is generally sold at a cheaper price. For a comparison, it's helpful to think about ibuprofen, the active ingredient of Nurofen and Anadin. While you can buy these brand medicines in pharmacies, you can also typically buy a generic, cheaper equivalent: Ibuprofen.
