Satisfaction Guaranteed! does anyone know or have any kind of knowledge as to whether different brands of Citalopram can cause different reactions/side effects?? . Definitely for me, I can only tolerate the brand name drug (Cipramil) The generics for some reason do not work, I think they use different fillers and my brain doesn't. Just wondering what brands of citalopram everyone takes and if you have a preferred one over another. I take citalopram made by Torrent from CVS pharmacy. I'm considering using the name brand Celexa. I have found that at least one of my refills of Torrent (April refill) was different in potency (less potent). I have never had any luck when I have been placed on the generic brands of medications. Celexa especially; I was on it for 10 years, tried the generic several ti. The investigators obtained patients' consent to contact their pharmacies to determine whether and when generic citalopram was dispensed. "In Canada, pharmacies are not required to inform patients of a change to generic, and most private drug plans mandate the use of generics when available," Dr. Van Ameringen.
