What this does NOT mean Last edited by Sweet P; at Results 1 to 25 of It says clear as day in the first post to list prices and do NOT comment on anything else. The rules are laid out for you in the first post, so shouldn't be hard to follow. If the drug isn't available to you, you shouldn't even be listing the price of it anyway. The drug is actually a combination of the opioid hydrocodone along with acetaminophen, a nonprescription analgesic. A friend tested positive for PCP after doing some of this. What you may not now is that this thread is not well liked by a lot of people on stuff, and has created some controversy in the news. Last edited by deadricbloodgod; at Dank, Kind Bud, whatever the hell you want to call it: Patients must obtain an original prescription from their doctor each time they need a new supply.
