Different erectile dysfunction medicines suit different people, but it is difficult to tell which one will be best for you until you have tried them all. While a particular erectile dysfunction medicine may not work for you first time round, we recommend taking it at least eight times before giving up and trying another. Viagra is the most well-known of the three as it has been around for over 15 years. It provides incredible detailed images of the most amazing fusion reactor 24 hours a day. These medicines are not aphrodisiacs, so you will still need to be sexually stimulated in order to get an erection. Aug 18, Emily Hunt. This is because it can often take this long to determine whether or not a medicine is right for you. However, as above, it is possible that one medicine will be more or less effective than the others, and therefore it is best to initially try out all three to see which is best.
